"This is a palatial Tuscan villa located amongst the most scenic of countryside and surrounded by vineyards. Conveniently situated at the crossroads between Tuscany, Umbria and Lazio - enjoy the best of all these regions."

Surrounded by a sprawling wine estate, this is a stunning five bedroom property with all the components necessary for a truly outstanding stay. The villa is laid out around a central fireplace and open staircase, with original features such as beamed ceilings, tiled floors and rich red upholstery on display. The villa benefits from easily available staffing - whether you fancy a spa treatment, wine tasting, to go horse riding or arrange a top meal in with a private chef, everything is easily arranged. The bedrooms offer first class amenities akin to a hotel suite such as en suite bathrooms and TVs. The upstairs rooms all have living areas with desks also.

The villas location means the best of Italy is readily available too: find Orvieto within a fifteen minute drive, Todi, Perugia and Assisi within 50 minutes. Montepulciano, Siena and Rome within 90 minutes. The estate grounds that surround the villa encompass some 140 acres of vineyards, offering the most serene of views.
